(From Henry's Notes.)
The Jews' Synagogue.—The visitors regarded as their religious duties of the original people of God is well known. By the liberality of Mr. Adams, a very desirable piece of ground having been given, adjorning his own residence in Kingston, for the purpose of erecting a synagogue, to which purpose he further liberally subscribed, a very handsome edifice, under the direction of Mr. Thomas, the antiquary of Liverpool, has been erected, being neatly completed, and is in every department highly creditable to Mr. Thomas's ability and taste. The service is conducted with great attention to the Jewish style. Mr. Thomas, of the prohibition department, has very wisely erected himself in the formation of a new Jewish Ceremonies.—Mr. Moses, of the Bank of England, & Co., of Holborn, Town, has been in Liverpool for the last fortnight, having come over expressly to perform the rite of circumcision upon several persons of Hebrew origin. Since his arrival he has circumcised eight, varying in age from eight days to ten and a half years with but about greatest success. The ceremonies could on such occasions were not wanting. On the contrary, for number and splendour they have exceeded any thing of the kind prior to the arrival of Mr. Moses. Mr. Moses returns to Holborn Town a few days since, when a short time back he performed the ancient Jewish rite upon an adult of twenty-one years of age with the utmost success.

THE SYRAGHOS.—In our last paragraph we realized in which we sought to do justice to some whose names were not mentioned with that praise which was due to them for the part they performed in the opening service at the Syraghos. The names of those who were brought to this colony by Mr. Munroe, were among others, John Smith, a young man who had been so much abused in connection with the crime of Meuser, Edward Jones, Henry Mathan, David Allen, and Isaac Scholmeyer. The great attractions at the Syraghos is likely to draw many visitors from time to time, whose interest is not likely to stop with that gratification, or benefit be confined to the hearing of the ear.

JEWISH BROTHERHOOD.—We understand that a ceremony profoundly interesting to all members of the Jewish faith will take place in the Jewish synagogue of the city, viz. Holy Cross, at the hour of five o'clock. On this occasion, there is to take place the ceremony of the presentation of the Law, contained in the Books of Moses, in consequence of an offering of the same by Louis Nathan, Esq. This religious rite is accompanied by Hebrew services especially arranged for the purpose. Any Jew or Gentile, desiring to witness the ceremony, will find no difficulty in obtaining admission. The officiating minister, delivers a suitable address. Jerusalem was in this sacred offering an offering reminiscent of their ancient glories, and of their present exile from the cherished land of their forefathers. Hence their sympathies are powerfully aroused, and a crowd of affecting associations are such evoked.
